MR. FURMAN'S LECTURE.-Absence from town prevented us from hearing Mr. Furman's Lecture on the "Uses of Poetry," delivered on last Wednesday evening. NICE AND GOOD .- If you want some thing nice and palatable go to F. E. Salinas'. He has a lot of choice Ham Sausage which epicures esteem highly, besides an assortment of other good things equally esteemed. He is preparing for Christmas, and we advise the reader to go there and procure some of his nice things.

THE WEATHER. - The charming weather, over which people have been going into ecstacies lately, suddenly collapsed on Sunday morning last.-The bottom fell out and the rain poured. It turned cold, looked like snow, became a little warmer, then rained again, and the consequence was that Monday was as fair a sample of a dark, dank, dismal, dirty winter day as one could wish. It is better now.

CHANGE IN BUSINESS .- Mr. L. H. Redus, long known here as a Sewing Machine Agent, having determined to make a change, has bought out the interest of Mr. W. T.
